New certificates at GSPM!

Posted by: Charles Cushman in Untagged on Apr 24, 2009

We are excited to offer two new graduate certificates starting this fall. The first one is campaign strategy, which focuses on how to build a successful campaign plan, including communications, fundraising, and organization. Certificate earners will be ready to hit the campaign trail and manage campaigns successfully.

The second certificate is online politics, which explores the growing importance of online capacity, new media, and mobile technology in everyday politics. Students will be ready to handle new media campaign and organizing after completing this certificate.

Anybody who takes either certificate can transfer the courses into the political management degree and complete the Master's with another six courses.

For students currently enrolled in the Master's degree program, all of the courses that make up the two certificates are available to you --some are core courses, and the rest are electives you may take.

Please see the info on the GSPM website if you want to know more, or drop by to talk to us at the home office!
